AMID YET ANOTHER THREAT of a coup d'état, President Macaraigal-Arroyo is replacing the head of the Presidential Security Group (PSG) even as the courts support of the military with promises of housing benefits.

The lack of housing facilities for soldiers was one of the grievances cited by rebel soldiers in the 2003 failed coup.

The departure of Brig. Gen. Delino Bengat as PSG chief could be a sign that the president has set in motion a plan to replace the commander of the Presidential Security Group (PSG) even as the courts support of the military with promises of housing benefits.

No-EI alive after all; Palace
says no consensus on issue

By Christine G. Arendano,
Arnold H. Noman and TJ Bargaña

"NO-EI" IS NOT DEAD, AFTER ALL.

Midnight yesterday clarified that the Council of State had yet to come up with a consensus on whether the 2007 election should be scrapped because those present at the meeting on Tuesday did not go to the extent of voting for the proposal.

To emphasize the point, the Palace released a communique of the Council of State, detailing the issues that were agreed upon by the body, which did not include the no-election proposal.

In his weekly news conference, Executive Secretary Miranda Lim said he did not recall leaving an debate on whether the 2007 election should be held or scrapped.

"There was no consensus because [he is not] was not there in the floor..." Lim said.

Pope's first encyclical:
Back to basics and love

VATICAN CITY—POPE BENEDICT XVI on Wednesday said in his first encyclical that the Roman Catholic Church had no desire to govern states or set public policy, but at the same time could not remain on the sidelines in the fight for justice.

In the long-awaited document "God is Love," Benedict explored the relationship between God's love for mankind and the Church's works of charity, saying the two were intrinsically linked and form the foundation of the Christian faith.

The 73-page encyclical, eagerly awaited for clues about Benedict's major concerns, will likely characterize his early pontificate as one in which he sought to re-

Miriam scores; VFA office abolished

By Philip C. Tabara

THE EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR OF THE Presidential Commission on the Visiting Forces Agreement (PVCFA) appears headed to losing his office a day after he warned against the proposed junking of the controversial agreement.

President Macaraigal-Arroyo has decided to abolish the commission because it "duplicated" the functions of the National Legislative Oversight Committee on the VFA (NLOV), Sen. Mike Defensor said yesterday.

Foreign Secretary Alberto Fernandez also disclosed that Corason Parera—the most vocal official of the commission since the alleged rape of a Filipino woman by a group of US Marines last Nov. 1—could not speak in behalf of the administration on the VFA.

"The Arroyo" is convinced that the VFA is irrelevant because it duplicates the work of the VFA, and it requires an expenditure of P20 million a year," Fernandez said.

"And from what law school did he [Parera] graduate? He does not know his law."

But the commission, which is under the Office of the President, runs on a budget of P2 million a year drawn from that office, Parera said.

Santiago, who conducts the VFA along with Gen. Ben. Antonio Corason and who has recommended the commission and transportation of the VFA, also said Parera was "publicly embarrassed" by Parera during the first hearing on the budget of the Department of Foreign Affairs.

Another Oakwood mutineer is missing

A SEVENTH JUDGE OFFICER LEDGED TO the July 27, 2003 Oathsworn meeting has gone missing, according to the Philippine Army.

Army 3rd Lt. Angelito Cay, a member of Philippine Military Academy Class 2000, went AWOL (Absent without official leave) last June 6 and was dropped from the rolls 10 days later.

Cay and 76 other Justice Army officers were charged with gross misconduct after their names appeared in a database allegedly recovered from the Oathsworn Premier hotel at the Ayala Center, some of the failed 2003 oaths. They were not detained but were placed incommunicado under the custody of their respective units.

“We were stopped from the tollbooth on Jan. 15. We have no information if he has indeed spoken with the other suspects,” he says. Spokesman Maj. Randolph Rasmussen said.

They were missing more than a week before law enforcement found justice officers implicated in the Oakland robbery — Capt. Nathaniel Robinson, 44, aka. Lawrence Don Juan, Sonny Cummings and Patrick Rasmussen — rescued from a high-security detention facility in Fort Belvoir on the night of Jan. 27.

Last Tuesday Aug. 2002 Lt. Michael Williams declared his innocence from the case, but had no

GMA orders crackdown on smuggling

By Arman N. Nouri and Gil E. Colaninno)

PRESIDENT MACAPAGAL-ARROYO HAS OBLIGED the Department of Justice to prosecute big-time glots and secure their conviction amid report Vicky Tok, who is allegedly romantically linked to Gentleman Mike Arroyo, is involved in smuggling.

Grilled by Senate
On Tuesday, newly-appointed Senate Commissioner of Mental Health was grilled at the Senate regarding the alleged mismanagement of a schizophrenia clinic in the state capital. The hearing was held on Tuesday, July 15, 1997, in the Senate Chamber. The hearing was held in the Senate Chamber.

Was he on the take?

Concededly, he said he had discussed the matter with Finance Secretary Manmohan Singh in a meeting before the cabinet.

But a Police official, however, said Malhotra is not too keen on getting deeper into the smuggling allegations raised by one of President's supporters against him and his brother-in-law.

"I don't see why Malhotra should give special effort to find one offender among so involved in smuggling," said the Police Under-Secretary, Hardeep Singh, in a briefing in Malhotra's office.

"We will just have to monitor the progress of the investigation in the Department of Customs," he said.

"I hope the [BIOG] would like the cases supported by credible evidence because there were many cases filed by citizens which were all withdrawn," he said, noting that some citizens may do so even upon the knowledge of these cases.

Not properly prepared

He said that not only were cases not backed by evidence, but some do not even have the names of people involved. He said some cases were "not properly prepared."

"It's easy to announce the filing of a case against big names ... but hard to prove their culpability," he said.

Recalling that the RUC had issued an "order of battle" against about 200 big-time smugglers, Connelley said those in debt would be of no importance if there is no evidence against them.

Palestinians vote in election

RAMALLAH, WEST BANK—Palestinians vote in their first parliamentary election in a decade on Wednesday and could bring the powerful Islamic movement Hamas into the government for the first time.

Israeli officials have cautioned that a victory for Hamas, which denounced suicide bombings and officially committed to destroying the Jewish state, could herald an end to suicide bombings. The United States and others reacted.

Optimists said that Hamas, running for parliament for the first time and winning an estimated 40 percent of the vote, would bring peace to the West Bank and Gaza Strip.

After years of Palestinian in-state and violent security forces to prevent any disruption or cheating after weeks of armed chaos that had threatened to delay the ballot.

These elections will be a step on the way to freedom, achieving self-determination and building our state," Abbas said in a television address. Abbas was elected a year ago.

Some 3.4 million people in the Gaza Strip, the occupied West Bank and Arab East Jerusalem are eligible to vote for the 132-member Palestinian Legislative Council in the poll set to open at 7 a.m.

Voters will choose among 12 parties from the national level and some less than 400 candidates running locally in the five parliamentary election districts. About 400 Israeli soldiers have been deployed to monitor the process.

The main Hamas-led militant group has pledged to govern peacefully.

Israel's army and police have also pulled back from Palestinian population centers to avoid interfering in the election in the West Bank, which Israel captured in 1967. Middle East Watch

At the same time, Israel's troops in Gaza once high above ground attacks by wall tanks of the Israeli Army, a group protesting the ballot and which issued responsibility for a suicide bombing in Israel last Thursday. (AP)

The case strengthens our conviction that the Visiting Forces Agreement should be abrogated by the Philippine Government. It not only occasions similar abuses and violations of human rights, but also casts a shadow on our sovereignty as a nation.

FENG SHUI 2006

Eat your way to good luck

By Margie Suga-Ayres

"FILL YOUR DINING table with lots of food to assure prosperity and abundance in the New Year," says Feng Shui-based geomaster Joseph Chua, feng shui consultant of Manila's Mandarin Oriental.

In 2006 in the Year of the Fire Pig. And if you're the slightest bit superstitious, you will take the opportunity provided by the Chinese New Year celebration to make good luck for your life.

Given the important role food plays in Chinese culture, it is not surprising that many dishes have symbolic meaning.

Chua suggests ways to make the Chinese New Year, which begins Jan. 26, auspicious for everyone.

"Share the kinds of foods, except pork because it's considered a sacrilegious food," Chua says. Pigs mean rich harvest.

For a symbol of longevity, eat a lot of fish to symbolize good luck. Chua says the shape of the fish is as really important, but one prepare well. For long life, pineapple for you of luck, not apples for peace and safety, water dishes (except for non-children who will bring good luck) and lotus, which means more money because it looks like a gold coin.

The huge amount of food prepared at this time also symbolizes wealth and good harvest for the household.

Other geomancy tips

Some dishes with eggs. The Chinese believe eggs symbolize fertility. Eggs or spring rolls, both the shape of a gold bar, they are also associated with new year and good of wealth and prosperity.

Don't forget the noodles, which stand for longevity. Fish must be served whole as a symbol of no further misfortune.

Black sesame, fish, white chicken symbolize a good marriage and the coming together of families during the first whole night of the New Year. Lotus seeds mean fertility.

But don't eat chili or fish in a cross. It is white, which signifies death and misfortune in the Chinese.

To keep the family close, Chua suggests putting a ring of oranges on the table. "Oranges represent happiness, so they make the house a happy house," he says.

ROASTED Beijing Duck

Have gifts of good luck money in special red envelopes called ang-pao.

At the stroke of midnight, the star custom should be full. Give one piece of orange inside for prosperity.

Add one piece of spring onion for good luck, three pieces of water with room for a job promotion, happiness and longevity," Chua says. "Don't forget to add seven for married couples and eat one for good fortune."

This is the first day of Chinese New Year.

A winner of a tenderloin

ON MY WAY TO WORK, I passed by Monterey Plaza to pick up my Green Beans, which, incidentally, I haven't touched in a week. As usual, no one, not even me, has eaten them. I had even tried.

I looked at the plate in awe, wondering if the chef had lost his mind. I thought, if it is really as good as I heard, I should try it.

Last night, my green bean tenderloin, Monterey Plaza, was a good idea. I had a good idea of what I was getting into, but I was not sure if it was worth the wait. I had a good idea of what I was getting into, but I was not sure if it was worth the wait.

In truth, he was finished, in an old, worn, and somewhat of a mess. But he was not the prettiest of chefs. He was a good chef, but he was not the prettiest of chefs. He was a good chef, but he was not the prettiest of chefs.

KITCHEN RESCUE

By: Roger Aspinwall

I joined him for dinner and, to my surprise, he was not the prettiest of chefs. He was a good chef, but he was not the prettiest of chefs. He was a good chef, but he was not the prettiest of chefs.

The Monterey Plaza is a highly decorated and somewhat of a mess. But he was not the prettiest of chefs. He was a good chef, but he was not the prettiest of chefs. He was a good chef, but he was not the prettiest of chefs.

As for the food, it was not the prettiest of chefs. He was a good chef, but he was not the prettiest of chefs. He was a good chef, but he was not the prettiest of chefs. He was a good chef, but he was not the prettiest of chefs.

Tenderloin pork

I just want to ask how I can make pork tenderloin. I just had one of the toughest pork chops. And I think it was not just the chef. The pork chop was not the chef's fault. It was the chef's fault.

In our house, we try our pork chops and they're not as good as the ones at the restaurant. We try our pork chops and they're not as good as the ones at the restaurant.

What we do is to cook the pork chops in a slow cooker. We cook the pork chops in a slow cooker. We cook the pork chops in a slow cooker. We cook the pork chops in a slow cooker.

As for the food, it was not the prettiest of chefs. He was a good chef, but he was not the prettiest of chefs. He was a good chef, but he was not the prettiest of chefs. He was a good chef, but he was not the prettiest of chefs.
